Title X, Section 10108, The Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act of 1992 (the Federal Program) requires the disclosure of certain information regarding lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in connection with the sale of residential real property. Unless otherwise exempt, the Federal Program applies only to housing constructed prior to 1978. A seller of pre-1978 housing is required to disclose to the buyer, based upon the seller's actual knowledge, all known lead-based paint hazards in the property and provide buyer with any available reports in the seller's possession relating to lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards applicable to the property. The seller, however, is not required to conduct or pay for any lead-based paint risk assessment or inspection. At the time that the offer to purchase is entered into by the buyer, the seller is required to provide the buyer with the EPA pamphlet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home" and a disclosure of information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the property.

Under the Federal Program, the seller is required to provide the buyer with a ten-day time period (or other mutually agreeable time period) for the buyer, at buyer's expense, to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards unless the buyer waives such assessment or inspection by indicating such waiver on the lead-based paint disclosure form. Seller(s) and any agent involved in the transaction are required to retain a copy of the completed lead-based paint disclosure form for a period of three (3) years following the date of settlement.
