Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Lead Warning Statement

A buyer/tenant of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may contain lead-based paint and that exposure to lead from lead-based paint, paint chips or lead paint dust may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning if not managed properly. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller/landlord of any interest in residential real property is required to disclose to the buyer/tenant the presence of known lead-base paint hazards and to provide the buyer/tenant with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's/landlord's possession. A tenant must receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention. It is recommended that a buyer conduct a risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards prior to purchase.

Title X, Section 10108, The Residential Lead-Based Paint Hazard Reduction Act of 1992 (the Federal Program) requires the disclosure of certain information regarding lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in connection with the sale of residential real property. Unless otherwise exempt, the Federal Program applies only to housing constructed prior to 1978. A seller of pre-1978 housing is required to disclose to the buyer, based upon the seller's actual knowledge, all known lead-based paint hazards in the property and provide buyer with any available reports in the seller's possession relating to lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards applicable to the property. At the time that the offer to purchase is entered into by the buyer, the seller is required to provide the buyer with the EPA pamphlet entitled "Protect Your Family From Lead In Your Home" and a disclosure of information on lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards in the property.

Under the Federal Program, the seller is required to provide the buyer with a ten-day time period (or other mutually agreeable time period) for the buyer, at buyer's expense, to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards unless the buyer waives such assessment or inspection by indicating such waiver on the lead-based paint disclosure form. Seller(s) and any agent involved in the transaction are required to retain a copy of the completed lead-based paint disclosure form for a period of three (3) years following the date of settlement.
